Tiffany Bell began her musical studies in the Rapid City Children's Chorus at the age of eight, where she first became enamored with music making. At nine she started playing cello in her elementary school orchestra, and began studying privately with Stephen Gram of Rapid City two years later. Bell was a member of the Black Hill Symphony Orchestra from 2002-2006, and was featured as a soloist with the Black Hills Symphony in 2006 as winner of the Black Hills Young Artist Competition. The same year, she was also awarded first prize in the Black Hills Young Vocal Artist Competition, and was featured as a vocal soloist with the Black Hills Chamber Orchestra.

Ms. Bell received her Bachelor's degree in performance from the University of Missouri – Kansas City, where she was a student of Carter Enyeart, and graduated summa cum laude in 2010. She has completed coursework for a Masters of Musicology at UMKC, where she was a graduate teaching assistant for music appreciation and other Conservatory courses. Ms. Bell is a member of the Wichita Symphony Orchestra and cello teacher at Kansas City School of Music, teaching students of all ages and ability, from young beginners to adults.
