

Ho Anthony Ahn

---

Ho Anthony Ahn, cellist, was a member of the Kansas City Symphony for twenty years before his retirement in 2014. He has served as a board member for the Kansas City Symphony, the Youth Symphony of Kansas City and is currently on the board of the Kansas School of Classical Ballet.

Ho holds a Bachelor of Music degree from Rice University and a Master of Music degree from Northwestern University. Teachers he has studied with include Shirley Trepel, Hans-Jorgen Jensen, Michael Haber and Glenn Garlick. Mr. Ahn has participated in the Spoleto Opera Festival, the Colorado Music Festival, the Utah Opera Festival and the Palm Beach Chamber Music Festival. Ho has soloed with the Kansas City Philharmonia, the Seoul Symphony of New York, the Saint Joseph Symphony, the Olathe Community Orchestra, the Northland and the Medical Arts Orchestra of Kansas City. An avid teacher, Ho currently holds a studio of twenty seven private students as well holds sectionals for the Youth Symphony and area high schools. Mr. Ahn has given masterclasses at Drake University and Wichita State University as well as at the University of Maryland Eastern Shore. He lives in Leawood, Kansas with his wife and two sons.